

Baptism in the Holy Spirit

The main evidence that someone is being filled with the Holy Spirit is a demonstration of power for ministry in some kind of vocal way. This includes speaking in other tongues, prophecy, singing, preaching, proclaiming, or speaking boldly. Being filled with the Holy Spirit is an experience that is continuous. It's a lifestyle! The Father fills us with His Holy Spirit so that we can have power to live our lives and minister to others.

Who Is the Holy Spirit?

A Person – equal with Jesus & the Father

John 14:16-17 (NIV)

- (16) And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever—
- (17) the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you.

A Promise

Luke 24:49 (NIV)

- (49) I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

A Gift

Acts 1:4-5 (NIV)

- (4) On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: “Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about.
- (5) For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

A Seal (mark) of Ownership

Ephesians 4:30 (NIV)

- (30) And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

A Guarantee

Ephesians 1:13-14 (NIV)

- (13) And you also were included in Christ when you heard the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation. When you believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit,
- (14) who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory.

A Deposit

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 (NIV)

- (21) Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us,
- (22) set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

A Companion

John 14:17-18 (NIV)

- (17) the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you.
- (18) I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you.

A Counselor

John 14:26 (NIV)

- (26) But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

The Truth

John 16:13-15 (NIV)

- (13) But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come.
(14) He will glorify me because it is from me that he will receive what he will make known to you.
(15) All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what he will make known to you.”

(7) Utterly amazed, they asked: “Aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans?
(8) Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language?
(9) Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,
(10) Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome
(11) (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!”
(12) Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, “What does this mean?”

Acts 2:13-18 (NIV)

- (13) Some, however, made fun of them and said, “They have had too much wine.”
(14) Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: “Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say.
(15) These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It’s only nine in the morning!
(16) No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:
(17) “ ‘In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams.
(18) Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.

What Are 'Tongues' For?

1 Corinthians 14:1-18 (NIV)

- (1) Follow the way of love and eagerly desire gifts of the Spirit, especially prophecy.
- (2) For anyone who speaks in a tongue does not speak to people but to God. Indeed, no one understands them; they utter mysteries by the Spirit.
- (3) But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouraging and comfort.
- (4) Anyone who speaks in a tongue edifies themselves, but the one who prophesies edifies the church.
- (5) I would like every one of you to speak in tongues, but I would rather have you prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be edified.
- (6) Now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you and speak in tongues, what good will I be to you, unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or word of instruction?
- (7) Even in the case of lifeless things that make sounds, such as the pipe or harp, how will anyone know what tune is being played unless there is a distinction in the notes?
- (8) Again, if the trumpet does not sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle?
- (9) So it is with you. Unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air.
- (10) Undoubtedly there are all sorts of languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning.
- (11) If then I do not grasp the meaning of what someone is saying, I am a foreigner to the speaker, and the speaker is a foreigner to me.
- (12) So it is with you. Since you are eager for gifts of the Spirit, try to excel in those that build up the church.
- (13) For this reason the one who speaks in a tongue should pray that they may interpret what they say.
- (14) For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.
- (15) So what shall I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my understanding; I will sing with my spirit, but I will also sing with my understanding.
- (16) Otherwise when you are praising God in the Spirit, how can someone else, who is now put in the position of an inquirer, say "Amen" to your thanksgiving, since they do not know what you are saying?
- (17) You are giving thanks well enough, but no one else is edified.
- (18) I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you.

1 Corinthians 14:4 (NIV)

(4) Anyone who speaks in a tongue edifies themselves, but the one who prophesies edifies the church.

1 Corinthians 14:16 (NIV)

(16) Otherwise when you are praising God in the Spirit, how can someone else, who is now put in the position of an inquirer, say "Amen" to your thanksgiving, since they do not know what you are saying?

1 Corinthians 4:18 (NIV)

(18) Some of you have become arrogant, as if I were not coming to you.

Why are intelligent words and prophecy better than 'tongues' in a public setting?
